

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The Blackstone Valley Historical Society

OPEN HOUSE

as part of the

Great Road Fall Heritage

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2008

12:30 – 4:00 PM

North Gate Toll

Arnold Bakery

Take a leisurely stroll back in time as you visit 200 year old Northgate Toll House, the reconstructed Arnold Bakery and the Limerock Fire Station. See a 1920's era advertising stage curtain, a reproduction of a mid-18th century period room and mementos of the Lime Rock Grange and Volunteer Fire Department. Experience life in the 1870s as you tour Arnold Bakery and view artifacts of a bygone era in the Blackstone Valley.

And then on

SATURDAY EVENING OCTOBER 18, 2008

AT 7:00 PM

Join acclaimed author

Paul Eno

as he presents

“Behind the Paranormal in the Blackstone Valley”

Both events take place at North Gate Toll House
1873 Old Louisquisset Pike (RI 146) ♦ Lincoln, RI 02865
www.blackstonevalleyhistoricalsociety.org