Movie Matinee at the Blackstone Valley Historical Society

BVHS is excited to present Part 1 of "Senetchonet to Manville: A Journey Through Time," a fascinating historical documentary about the village of Manville, RI, created by Betty and Carlo Mencucci.

This remarkable film features a rich collection of photographs and material gathered by Roger Gladu. It explores Manville's development from its colonial roots to the dramatic events of the 20th century, including the 1920s textile strikes, the 1924 gas explosion on Cumberland Hill, the 1927

Senetchonet to Manville.
